

Borderline Arts' Response to COVID-19 (Updated 26.3.20)

We take your safety and wellbeing very seriously, and as part of our responsibility to you, we are committed to following both NHS and UK Government advice closely. As I am sure you are aware, the advice from UK Government/Public Health England has now changed regarding the operations of public buildings, spaces and organisations, which now includes (amongst others) the following guidelines:

- Work from home, where possible
- Avoid large gatherings
- Avoid gatherings in smaller public spaces
- Avoid gatherings with friends and family

We've outlined what this means for Borderline Arts below:

Volunteers:

We have made arrangements for all our volunteers to work from home until further notice.

Creative Groups for Adults with BPD:

(Art Group, Creative Expressive Group and Writing Group)

Until further notice, we will be running these sessions online, via ZOOM on the usual dates and at the usual time of 2pm-4pm.

For information on how to take part, go to our private Facebook Group (don't forget to answer the membership questions) or email workshops@borderlinearts.org

For further information for each group, please click the links: Art Group, Creative Expressive Group, Writing Group

Creative Educational Workshops:

These have been suspended until further notice.

And, going forward..?

We will continue to monitor and respond to any advice given from the UK Government/Public Health England and we will update you all as and when the advice changes, but for now look after yourselves as best as you can! If you have any questions about any of this, please contact me at sarah@borderlinearts.org

With best wishes, Sarah and the Borderline Arts Team
